Rachael Hale Creates a Sensation with Seasonal Specialties

San Jose, CA – January 18, 2005

“Sensational,” is the only way to describe the new selection of stunning Rachael Hale animal images you’ll find adorning Seasonal Specialties fun, new range of products.

Seasonal Specialties specialise in Holiday gift bags, Christmas and celebration ornaments, holiday stockings and holiday magnet sets.

The adorable new Rachael Hale images featuring the delightful character filled cats and canines are sure to make every item in the new range unputdownable this holiday season.

Rachael Hale’s expertise and understanding of her animals and their antics are exemplified by the delight and humour that is captured in all her images of our favourite pets in outlandish poses. It has also made Rachael Hale one of the most sought after and revered animal and pet photographers in the world. Rachael, it seems, has a rapport with her animals something akin to Dr Dolittle.

Such dedication and commitment is shared by Seasonal Specialties, which has made them one of the largest and most comprehensive companies for designing, importing and distributing decorative products for Christmas, Halloween/Harvest, Easter/spring, Valentines Day, St Patrick’s day and Patriotic holidays.

Seasonal Specialties distribute mainly to mass merchandisers such as target, K-Mart, Wal-Mart, Sears, Orchard supply and Sam’s Club as well as hardware, food, drug, discount and do-it-yourself stores through out the USA and Canada.

With the development of these much loved animal images of Rachael Hale to be featured on the exciting new holiday lines the result will be nothing less than a sensation for Seasonal Specialties.
