The Thomas Kinkade Company and Lionsgate Films Sign Movie Deal

MORGAN HILL, CA - March 9, 2007

We are pleased and excited to announce that we have entered into a broad agreement with Lionsgate Films for the production and distribution of Movie, Television, and DVD entertainment properties based on the art and life of Thomas Kinkade. Filming is set to begin shooting next month and casting will be finalized shortly. As a result, the first ever Thomas Kinkade motion picture is scheduled for wide release in theatres this Christmas season!

"The Christmas Cottage", inspired by the early life of Thomas Kinkade, is the story of how a small community and an aging mentor come to the aid of a family to save the only home they have ever known; and along the way teach a young man the meaning of love, friendship, and what it means to be an artist.
